MaltaPost launches PostaPay&Save

MaltaPost has launched PostaPay&Save – a Payment Account with a passbook that allows customers to safely receive funds, make payments while also budgeting efficiently. Individuals may deposit cheques or cash into the account and then pay bills and withdraw money as necessary.

PostaPay&Save allows customers to transfer to and receive funds from other PostaPay&Save Payment Accounts – all with immediate effect and free of any charges. With this convenient passbook customers can keep a record of every transaction made, allowing them to monitor the flow of funds. It is a Lombard Bank product and is being offered at specific MaltaPost offices.

When launching the product, MaltaPost CEO Joseph Gafa' expressed satisfaction at the strengthening of the range of financial services with the introduction of PostaPay&Save. He explained how this convenient passbook, which can be used by anyone over the age of 18, was particularly helpful for household budgeting, company expenses and club/association finances.

The service will initially be available at one of the following Post Offices:

Birkirkara: 58, Valley Road
Cospicua: Block 14, Fuq San Pawl
Marsa: MaltaPost Head Office, Qormi Road
Mosta: Civic Centre, Constitution Street
Nadur, Gozo: 13, North Street
Sliema: 39, Sir Adrian Dingli Street

It is also available from Lombard Bank at 82, St Sebastian Street, Qormi.
To benefit from this simple and secure Payment Account, customers can visit any of the Post Offices listed above. Proof of identity and address will need to be made available. Further information is available at www.maltapost.com/postapayandsave or by calling Tel: 2122 4421.
