MaltaPost Joins Forces with 14 Corporations in Malta to to offer voluntary support for the National Corporate Social Responsibility Day

Fourteen socially-responsible corporations in Malta joined forces to offer voluntary support for the 18th Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Day, which is held annually on the feast of St Joseph held on 19th March.

Sporting specially-designed T-shirts in a symbolic show of solidarity, hundreds of employees from AIS Group, Computime, Express Trailers, Farsons, Forestals, FTI Group, Gasan Group of Companies, GreenPak, HSBC Malta Foundation, MaltaPost, Multigas, Tipico, SEP Malta Holding, and St James Hospital participated in the activities at various localities in Malta and Gozo.

The companies carried out a range of works, from paintwork and clean-ups to gardening and cooking. This year's chosen causes were Birżebbuġa Primary School, Carers for Stray & Abandoned Felines (Cospicua), Ċentru Parrokkjali Sagra Familja (Cospicua), Monastery of Santa Margerita (Cospicua), Sannat Primary and Special Unit (Sannat), Noah's Ark Dog Sanctuary (Mellieħa), Villa Chelsea of Richmond Foundation (Birkirkara), St Joseph Home (Ħamrun), a home improvement project of Aġenzija Appoġġ (Valletta), a beach clean-up in cooperation with Nature Trust Malta (Pembroke), and on the premises of FTIA (Kalkara).

The participating companies and their representatives were invited at the official residence of the President of Malta H.E. Marie-Louise Coleiro Preca, who thanked the volunteers for their tangible support to the society.

MaltaPost is proud to have participated in the National CSR day, for the second time. This year its employees contributed in doing voluntary work at the Ċentru Parrokkjali Sagra Familja and the Monastery of Santa Margerita in Cospicua.
