MaltaPost Revolutionises Online Shopping

SendOn - A new forwarding service offered by MaltaPost that broadens the opportunities of online shopping in Malta.

Online shopping in Malta is rapidly increasing. In today's busy lifestyle more people prefer online shopping over conventional shopping. Online retailers of all types are expanding product offerings and focusing on improving the customer's experience. In spite of all this, often Maltese online shoppers are left disappointed with limited choice of goods when purchasing from UK online stores as many UK vendors do not ship to Malta. With this in mind MaltaPost has launched a service which will revolutionise online shopping in Malta.

Thanks to this new forwarding service offered by MaltaPost, today local online shoppers may not only buy anything that they like from all their favourite UK online stores, but also benefit from the competitive rates in the UK, take advantage of many UK retailers' free shipping rates to domestic addresses and avoid the prohibitive shipping rates charged by many UK online stores.

"With this new forwarding service, MaltaPost is broadening the opportunities of online shopping" explains Joseph Gafa' CEO at MaltaPost p.l.c. "With a huge network of Post Offices, an extensive delivery fleet and a dedicated team of delivery specialists, we offer flexible solutions and quality delivery services".

Registering for this service is very simple. Online shoppers just need to complete the registration form available online at maltapost.com/sendon. Following sign up, the customers will receive a reply via email with a unique user identifier and the UK address to be used when purchasing. MaltaPost will then arrange to ship the customer's orders right to their doorstep.

Online Shoppers may sign up for free and start using this service right away.

More information about this service is available at maltapost.com/sendon, or from MaltaPost Customer Care on 2122 4421 and info@maltapost.com.
